In Memoriam

Kathy Zingler

Our friendship with Kathy and Rick began in 1997 when Jennifer and Kathy's son, Kyle, performed in a local production of "The Sound of Music". When we founded Moonshadow's Spirit, Kathy was quick to help with our first fundraiser in a church hall. Kathy coordinated the silent auction table that first year. For the next twelve years Kathy used her artistic flair to build all our basket displays. It was her attention to detail, that led her to managing the income for every fundraiser. And she remained actively tracking donations for the virtual fundraisers during the COVID years. Kathy's efforts, even the last three years, while suffering the effects of chemotherapy, were vital to our organization. We will miss her smile and dedication
